New Officers for 2016-2018 elected at Division Reunion

Compatriots!

It is with honor that I begin my term as your Division Commander. And, I would like to thank you for your support. The DEC staff that have been chosen in my opinion is the best that anyone could hope would serve. Also, at our disposal are several Past Division Commanders that are available for advice should it be needed.

We have a lot of work ahead. Saving our monuments in New Orleans is, of course, at the top of our list of unfinished business. Presently, we are waiting for the results of our appeal. Hopefully, it will not be necessary to find alternative locations for them.

Our Giant Flag Project located on the edge of I49, mile marker 194, in Desoto Parish is moving forward. We now have the deed for the land; trees and underbrush are being removed. A contractor will soon be chosen to begin the installation. What a wonderful statement it will make to all!

The 2016 National Reunion was held in Richardson, Texas July 13-16. Twenty-six members representing ten camps attended. We can once again be proud of our Division as we received numerous awards. They were: Dixie Club (10); Gen. Jo Shelby (4); David Dodd (1); graves Award (1); Heritage Defense (1); Superior Achievement (2); Leadership Award (1); Commendation Award (2); Meritorious Service (11); and Distinguished Service (16).

The Division also received the following National Awards:

Gen. Richard Taylor Camp-Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest Award for most new members; and

S. A. Cunningham Award for best newsletter for camp with over 50 members

J. C. Hanna-Edward Darling Award for Top Recruiter in the Confederation

John Andrew Prime from Shreveport-Stephen Dill Lee Award which is the highest award issued to a non-service member

The Army of Trans-Mississippi under Commander Charles Lauret garnered the Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston Award for army with most new camps.

Over the past year our Division has experienced a large growth. However, retention is as important as recruitment. The time to renew our membership begins in August. So, I encourage everyone to make the commitment to the fight to preserve the true history of our ancestors by continuing as members of our organization. There is strength in numbers, Gentlemen!

J. C. Hanna
Commander
Louisiana Division

Compatriots,

I would like to begin with thanking you for working with me these last two years. It hasn't always been fun doing this job but the cooperation of some of you has made it easier. I thank the Division Executive Council for their votes that helped strengthen our Division and by extension the Confederation.

Around the state we made significant strides in preserving Confederate History through large, and isolated, efforts. The Southern Defenders monument in Lake Charles, the monument at Caddo Parish Courthouse, Clinton, Louisiana, Mouton in Lafayette, and the monuments in New Orleans have all been successfully defended so far. All of these efforts weren't by accident. Coordinated defenses have worked tirelessly to save our heritage and so far have been successful, but they aren't over. I ask that all of you make some effort to keep our monuments standing. As Commander Gremillion of Opelousas said, "If every member of the Division only gave $5 to the fight in New Orleans just think how far it could go." He is absolutely correct in his assessment.

The Division will soon file suit against the City of Natchitoches in Federal Court for violating our 1st and 14th Constitutional rights. I look for us to be back in the Christmas parade there this year if all goes well.

I am sorry that so many of you missed the Division Convention in Amite back in June. It was one of the best that we've had in years. Please make plans to come next year because with unity we are stronger. When Commander Hanna announces Fall Assembly plans you should plan to attend, especially camp commanders and adjutants needs training on the proposed software.

There have been many people who contributed to a successful two years. Chuck McMichael's counsel has been invaluable in keeping emotions in check and allowing cooler heads to prevail. Al Bethard in Lafayette was among the first to reach out to me with welcome to the office and an invitation to attend his meeting. Chip Landry's dry wit carried the day several times. Beauregard, in New Orleans, has valiantly opposed the corrupt mayor and city council almost daily. Mostly, I thank all of you who have run to the sound of the guns when a fight developed in our beloved state. Please continue to fight against the unjust attacks on our heritage and support our Division in the efforts to grow and prosper. Thank you.

Friends:

Thank you for the confidence shown by your support in allowing me to serve you in this position. I intend to do my best.

This is a challenging time for us. But is it really as bad as we think? Not when you compare our current trials with that of our Confederate ancestors during that terrible war. We do not have to worry about being shipped thousands of miles from home to fight bare footed in extreme weather conditions, with limited supplies, food, weapons and ammo against vastly superior numbers of the enemy. Okay, the last part might be true today – we are still vastly outnumbered.

But all that is expected of us is be proud of our Confederate ancestry. We can support the Cause by a number of means. Resolve to do whatever you can do. Involve yourself as much as you can, as long as you do something.

Support the SCV and remain in good standing. Support your Camp by attending meetings and camp events. Attend Division and National events. [If you did not attend our recent Division Convention in Amite or National Reunion in Dallas, you missed a couple of excellent gatherings.]

Review our Division and National websites, search the internet and Facebook for local camp sites, and sign up to receive newsletters from other camps in addition to your own. Find out what is going on in your local area, and attend. Attend Lee-Jackson banquets. Let family, friends and acquaintances know about our organization, and try to sign up new members. Obtain an SCV license plate for your car to let the masses know about our organization. Clean and/or flag the grave of a veteran. Support the Cause!

Fellow Compatriots,

I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincerest thank you for electing me as your newest Louisiana Division 2nd Lt. Commander. I am here to serve most of all, the membership of the great Louisiana Sons of Confederate Veterans and I ask that each and every one throughout the Division to contact me with your desires as to what you would want to see our Division accomplish. I will do my best to see that these desires are followed, giving a voice for our great Louisiana Compatriots.

While attending a Living History Event at Franklinton, La. fairgrounds a short time ago; the thought of what a great opportunity for us as descendants of Confederate Veterans to educate the public about our Heritage. As I have learned over the last few years, it takes being able to grab the attention of the public to come to our booth with the many items on display and be able to explain to them the many aspects of the War of Northern Aggression, leading into a discussion on our Heritage and truths. As we explain the truth behind our cause, it is like turning on a light to some and what an opportunity we have to further our cause and charge that as, Sons of Confederate Veterans, have been given the task to do. A lot of the public are completely ignorant of why our ancestors fought so bravely with devotion to the cause. When you have this opportunity to plant that seed of knowledge of the truth in them, it hopefully has led an individual to do research on their own after leaving us at an event being able to pass on to others, therefore making our "charge" a successful time well spent to honor our ancestors and heritage. Our ancestors have done their part and we need to make sure that the sacrifices they made were not in vain. It is time for us as Sons of Confederate Veterans to stand up and take over the charge for our Heritage.

Our Commander-in-Chief, Charles Kelly Barrow, had an article in the Confederate Veteran in the Jan/Feb 2016 magazine where he stated the following:

"At this time, the importance of education is crucial. Education is the key the Sons of Confederate Veterans must use. To many of us in the trenches, it feels like an "uphill" battle but it is a battle we MUST fight to win! Yes we are outnumbered and yes, we have the media, some educational and religious institutions, as well as politicians, against the truth. Sometimes it seems the whole world is against our cause and common sense has vacated the premises; however, THIS is the reason why the SCV should continue the fight. By making a stance, everyone must become involved. No one can make you participate but at the same time, the General Executive Council and General Headquarters cannot do all the work either. It will take everyone working together by writing letters, attending city and county meetings, researching monuments or local history, giving money to help fight the media and big government in courtrooms, etc. Yes, at first a person might be alone or at least feel that way but on a larger scope, it is evident that is not the truth. There are thousands, if not millions, feeling the same way but waiting, unsure as to what to do. Our Confederate ancestor gave more than he was ever asked to give, so as Commander-in-Chief, I am asking each of you to give of yourself. If you are unwilling to invest time, money and or/effort in the preservation of all things Confederate, why are you a part of the Sons of Confederate Veterans? This is not just about the past but the future, those children with Confederate blood in their veins yet unborn".

This leads me to come to you, our Louisiana Division Compatriots, to ask and enlist your help when you go to events to set up these tools of education to be able to reach out to the public about the truth of our ancestors' brave and honorable cause. Compatriots, if we have many events that we can attend, just think of how many more that we can reach out to and plant that seed to go on their own to find more information for them to further educate themselves and then others. I ask you as Sons of Confederate Veterans to come out to any event you can and do your part in fighting this long uphill battle that we are faced with to defend our Heritage and I think you will walk away at the end of the event feeling I have done my best which is all as Sons that we can do. The more people that we can engage is to our advantage in the truth and education of the cause that so many of our ancestors gave all they had and it is the least we can do for such a short time in our lives. Can we, if we could, truthfully say to our ancestors, "I hope you are proud of the job we are doing to tell the truth about your honor, sacrifices and beliefs that you so much believed in?" I hope so and I will as your 2nd Lt. Commander continue to do all I can to ensure that as many people that I can reach out to will know the truth and I do not know of a better way than to be able to talk to so many individuals face to face in such a short amount of time. Education is our greatest hope in this battle of so many untruths on many fronts. Come on Sons, let's face the battle with determination and devotion to do our part by putting huge dents in the armor of mistruths!!

"They took a stand for us, Now, we stand for them"

"May God bless our efforts to Vindicate the Cause of the Confederate South"

Jim Tyrney

2nd. Lt. Commander

Chaplain's Corner

It was an honor when our new Commander asked me to serve as Division Chaplain, but I have to admit I was a little taken aback. I do not count myself worthy of being called a "Chaplain" for I have many shortcomings. When the Apostle Paul admonished us that "all have sinned and fall short of the Glory of God", he spoke to me and about me. If I am counted worthy, it is only through the saving grace of Our Lord. Jesus Christ is Lord, the one and only true God. There are no other gods but Him.

I know I have some big shoes to fill. Chaplain Troy will be a hard act to follow. God bless him for his service to our Division. Please pray for me as I continue his ministry.

You need to know what to expect from me. Tactfulness is a gift and should be used liberally, however I am not one to sugar-coat the truth. One cannot back up from what is written in the Bible. It is our line of battle where we shall stand defiant against our detractors.

There is a distinct parallel between our Christian Beliefs and our Confederate/Southern Heritage. The two, I believe, go hand in hand. The attacks against our Southern Heritage involves our core faith, and that is Christianity.

The South is known as the "Bible Belt" and there is a reason why. I suggest you Google the term and do a little research. I am running out of room here. During the War of Northern Aggression, there were around 150,000 professions of faith. It is clear throughout the letters and diaries of common soldiers and chaplains alike, who speak of their faith, their existence in as the result of the will of God, the sacred nature of the Confederate war, their total dependence on God, and their certainty that God would deliver complete victory to His chosen, Southern people. The South was not known as the Bible Belt until around 1924, but the term defines who we are, Southern Christian Conservatives. Have you ever noticed how the liberal news media uses this term and lumps us all in with White Supremacists? This is a parallel. This is a direct and intentional attack on Southerners and Christians.

From the Birth of Jesus, believers have suffered persecution. Jesus suffered and died because of that persecution. Biblical prophecy foretells of this. Although we may not know what real persecution is, fellow believers are being attacked and slaughtered worldwide. Today in America, Liberals and Atheists are trying to wipe out all vestiges of our Christianity, such as the removal of God and the Bible from our schools, the removal of The Ten Commandments, the induction of the homosexual lifestyle to our children, etc. (I could go on and on and will do so in upcoming newsletters)

Likewise, Southerners have suffered degrees of persecution at the hands of Northerners for hundreds of years. The fight for our Southern Heritage did not start when lunatic Dylann Roof slaughtered those innocent church-goers. Our fight goes back much farther.

I am just warming up and now I have to wind up. Be forewarned. I enjoy ticking people off with the Truth. If you use Biblical Truth in God's Word and people get upset, then they need to examine their own lives. If I get outside of the Truth and offend someone, an apology is in order. If this happens, I expect to hear from you. I assure you, my feelings won't be hurt.

I sincerely look forward to serving Him and you, my Brothers in Christ and Fellow Compatriots
